HERE'S HOW TO BUILD YOUR MR. UNDERLING PAPERCRAFT:

Trim out the 5 pieces that form your papercraft as indicated. Don't forget to cut the assembly slots in each piece. Assemble each piece as shown below by folding and aligning assembly slots.

1. Insert the Mr. Underling backdrop into the desk piece by aligning the yellow assembly slots.

2. Insert the triple monitors piece by sliding it in the gap between the backdrop and the desk.

3. Make a 45° valley fold to the area under his left arm and give the ball and chain a slight "S" curve. Slide Mr. Underling into the desk piece by aligning the orange assembly slots.

4. Accent the desk with Mr. Underling's nameplate.

WHO IS MR. UNDERLING?

Once a mild-mannered nine-to-fiver, Mr. Underling's years of work have turned him into a monster. Shackled by the ball and chain of endless paperwork, complaints and intolerable co-workers, he struggles to survive his humdrum days. But then, how can you have a positive outlook on life when your business card title reads "Assistant to the Chairman of the Bored." No doubt about it—Mr. Underling needs a vacation from the workplace grind!

OFFICE LIFE HAS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR MISERY!

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) is responsible for enforcing federal laws that make it illegal to discriminate against a job applicant or an employee because of the creature's race, fur color, religion, gender (including horns), planetary origin, age (350 or older), disability or genetic mutation. It is also illegal to discriminate against a creature because it complained about needing a vacation.
